

Centre of Post-Grade Study

The Centre of Post-Grade Study has the task of organizing and coordinating the teaching and academic processes in order to leading to the award of postgraduate degrees, as well as obtaining other diplomas for the realization of other continuous education courses at the University of Jaen.

Its aim is to planning, design, development, quality assurance and coordinated implementation of the strategy and offer postgraduate education and training of the University of Jaén in order to offer high quality specialized courses that, based on responsibility social with the socioeconomic environment of the university, to become an international benchmark in their respective fields.

Following the motto of "Your future is here", the University of Jaen is structured around three key areas: Excellence, Social Responsibility and Internationalization.